

Susie Gregory

Working in watercolor, pastel, mixed media and oil, Susie Gregory has been painting for almost thirty years. Dividing her time between the scenic and nostalgic hills of southern Indiana and the ever-changing yet ever-the-same marshland of coastal Georgia, she draws constant inspiration from her surroundings. She is particularly intrigued in the play of light upon her subject, whether it is a child at play, a snoozing puppy, a sunstruck stand of sycamore trees or the beach at sundown.

Susie and her husband, David, have three grown children and two young grandchildren who, along with their golden retriever, Nellie, offer wonderful painting fodder. An avid golfer, Susie has painted golf scenes from Ireland and Scotland to Pebble Beach and the Sea Island Golf Course on St. Simon's Island, Georgia, her home away from home.

Her works have graced the walls of the Indiana State Museum and Governor's mansion and are presently found in galleries in Indiana and St. Simon's Island, Georgia.
