

OLD GOATS PHOTOGRAPHY

My name is Jeffrey Griffith and I was born and raised in suburban Atlanta fifty years ago. I developed a love of photography from a very early age and my very first camera was an old "Brownie" box camera that was given to me by my father.

Throughout my life I have enjoyed photography, specifically nature photography but it was not until recently that I considered taking it beyond the level of a much loved hobby. Now that I have recently retired from state government I have expanded this hobby into a second career.

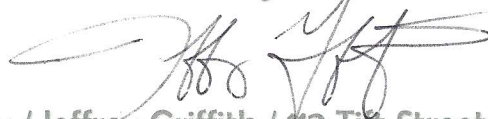

I completed 3 years of art study in high school and entered Georgia State University as a Commercial Art/Photography Major but switched my major to Math/Computer Science. I never lost my love for photography and continued to pursue it as a hobby for nearly 30 years.

I moved from Atlanta to the Brunswick Area over 20 years ago and now reside with my wife in Jesup, GA.

Spending so much time in the outdoors it is only natural that my love for the outdoors is often a subject of inspiration. Whether it is the ever changing surface of the ocean and beach sands shifting shape and form or the majesty of the North Georgia Mountains; the beautiful palette of colors present from one moment to the next are a source of wonder and awe at the Lord's ability to capture our attention and bless our lives.

I have contributed photographs for publication in the Jesup Press-Sentinel, Anchor Age – the quarterly publication of the Georgia Ports Authority, Wayne County Magazine, to name but a few.

Thank You for your consideration,
