

ARTIST BIOGRAPHY
JANICE G. HALDERSON

Janice Halderson graduated from the University of Florida in 1973 with a Bachelor of Science in Zoology. She worked in medical and pharmaceutical sales and marketing for a number of years before joining her husband's executive recruiting firm in the capacity of administrator. She and her husband lived in Dahlonega, GA for sixteen years before moving to St. Simons Island, GA in 2003.

Janice began painting in oil in 2003. She has studied with Barbara Mueller and Jeanne Szabo. She has also participated in workshops with Ken Wallin in St. Simons Island and Lois Griffel in Gloucester, MA. Her particular passion is landscape and water, but she has also painted still life and portraiture. She works primarily in her home studio and continually seeks to expand her knowledge and experience through books, DVDs, and workshops.
