

CHERI L. ROBBINS

Cheri is a self taught artist but has enhanced her creative energy taking various classes and workshops. She participated with local artist Janet Powers for a week of painting in La Manzanillo, Mexico; joined a group of artists in New England for Plein Air Studies last spring, took classes while abroad in Europe summer 2008 and currently participates in weekly workshop with Ken Wallin at his art studio on St. Simon Island. She is a member of the Glynn Arts Association, Jekyll Island Art Association, McIntosh Art Association, Katahdin Plein Air Assoc. and the Oak Grove Island Artists' Guild.

Growing up in Maine, Cheri began painting with acrylics and watercolors. When she moved to the Golden Isles she fell in love with the natural beauty of the marshes and palm trees and now works mostly in oils. She can often be found on her dock, photographing or sketching the ever changing light on the marsh. She prefers to paint landscapes getting inspiration for her art from the colors of nature and the surrounding beauty of the places she has lived and visited.
