

Resume

Linda B. Rutland
Cell # 678 296 2402

Linda Rutland was born and raised in the low country of South Carolina. She graduated from the Crawford W. Long School of Nursing of Emory University.

While studying Interior Design at the American Intercontinental University, the desire to paint was realized.

One of her first teachers and a major influence in oils and later acrylics was Jeanne N. Szabo in Brunswick, Ga.

Linda has continued to seek enriching learning experiences through collage courses, workshops and their instructors.

Some of the recent classes and workshops are listed below:

- Figure Drawing and Mixed-Media – Carolyn Manosevitz -Colorado Mountain Collage
- Landscape Workshop – Peggy Everett - St. Simons Island, Ga.
- Still Life – Doug Flint - Florida
- The Portrait – Martha Carpenter – St. Simons Island, Ga..
- Landscape – Marshes – Janet Powers – Brunswick, Ga.
- The Landscape in Acrylics – Wayland Moore – Atlanta, Ga.
- Landscape, seascape, water, boats – Ken Wallin – St. Simons Island, Ga.

Linda has exhibited in three shows recently in Atlanta, Ga. and Snowmass Village, Co.